

Reading Is Fundamental
RIF.org

FEBRUARY 2014

READING ACTIVITY CALENDAR

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
						1 How many books did you read last month? Make a list in your journal.
2 Groundhog Day Go to the library and read about these funny underground creatures.	3 Don't forget to write in your journal. Take 15 minutes to write about your day.	4 Today is Rosa Parks' birthday. In her honor, read a book about the struggle for civil rights.	5 Trade books with a friend.	6 Read for 20 minutes today.	7 Draw a new cover for your favorite book.	8 It's Boy Scout Day. Visit your library and find out how this organization got its start.
9 Interview a grandparent or older friend about life when he or she was a child.	10 Read for 20 minutes today.	11 Create a secret code and use it to write a short message. Challenge a friend to "crack the code."	12 On Lincoln's Birthday, read the Gettysburg Address. When did he give it? What was going on in the U.S. at the time?	13 Make a Valentine's Day card for a friend or family member.	14 Valentine's Day Write a poem for someone special.	15 Learn about civil rights by reading "Through My Eyes" by Ruby Bridges, or a book about the civil rights movement.
16 Read the newspaper comics today.	17 Presidents' Day Read a biography of a former president. How did this day get its name?	18 Look up the word "kerfuffle" in the dictionary, and then use it in a sentence.	19 Read for 20 minutes today.	20 Write a story using yourself as the main character.	21 Eat alphabet soup and see how many words you can make from the letters in your bowl.	22 Read "George Washington and the General's Dog" or another book about our famous first president.
23 Read a book by W.E.B. DuBois. Today is his birthday!	24 Read one of Aesop's Fables today. Write your own, using animals as characters. What lesson does it teach?	25 Create a word search using the names of your favorite book characters.	26 People say the Beauty and the Beast story is the oldest fairytale. With a friend read your favorite.	27 Read for 20 minutes today.	28 How many books did you read this month? Add to your list.

© 2014 RIF